

Please do not take away K-LOVE. I listen to it everyday, all day long and it helps me get through work and actually come home in a good mood. K-LOVE is good for the whole community because it is very positive, encouraging, and uplifting. Plus, it is one of the very few stations which are safe for small children to listen to without their parents having to worry about what is going to come on the air next.